

Please support HB 114 School Nursing Services Amendments

Another pre-k kid was labeled as behaviorally challenged with specific attention focused by teachers on managing his behavior in the classroom. I came in and screened him for vision, sent home a referral, mom took him in, and luckily he was given glasses. The teacher told me last week this child has no more behaviors. His behaviors were only his frustrations at not being able to see and comprehend what was being taught to him.

Please support HB 114 School Nursing Services Amendments